SEX: Can We Use It To Win?

Hi, my name is Vijay Sarma, my number is 647-857-5755, and I'm running for Mayor to deal with serious issues. I'm also happy that women keep getting better at getting better looking. While this is not all good, it's a fact. Young girls are sexier and older girls got better game, so we can interact in safe, fun and flirty ways today.

While the establishment wants us fighting, treating women badly reveals male insecurity and is part of a plan to make us weak. If men protect women in troubled times, just like we always have, all women will give them a better vibe back and validate their worth. Women can't tease, normalize complaining and emasculate men either, but if a man acts like one, it's hard to do. Men want power and women want security, so if we just handle it, we'll be fine. ☺
